Fight Pictures Shown.

The Jeffries-Johnson fight pictures were shown both afternoon and evening Monday at the Loomer operahouse. The matinee was but slimly attended and a number of those present were sporting men from Baltic and elsewhere, forty or more.

The evening's patronage was considerably larger, but by no means taxed the capacity of the house, which was all thrown open. The pictures themselves were especially good, but the so-called fight appeared to be more like a wrestling match and was a great disappointment to the fans in general, although it was practically what all the leading newspapers of

COLCHESTER Borough Team Defeats Millington's Near-Professionals 7 to 2-Benefit

The Colchtster baseball team went to Millington Saturday to play a return game with the team of that place. The Millingtons made up their minds to beat the local team this game. They hired five players to help them do the job, including "Duff" Joy, recently released by Moodus of the Middlesex league. The game was called at 2 o'clock by Umpire Arthur Foley, engineer of the Colchester Electric company, who accompanied the team down oclock by Umpire Arthur Foley, engineer of the Colchester Electric company, who accompanied the team down to witness the game. In the first inning, when the great Joy faced the first batter, O'Brien, to deliver one of his twisters, the batsman just unlimbered and connected with the first ball and it went soaring in the air. When the ball was returned to the infield O'Brien had made a complete circuit of the bases, amid the cheers of the crowd, of whom over fifty went from here to witness the game. This event seemed to take all the vim out of Mr. Joy, as he was touched up for several hits, resulting in the score of 7 to 2 in favor of Colchester. Lazinsk pitched for the locals and did splendid work, as did Tynan, who caught him. The local team played one of the best games of the season, every man fielding his position without error. This game makes the twelfth straight victory. Following was the batting order of the two teams:

Colchester—O'Brien 2b, Shugrue ss, Nelkin 3b, Tynan c, Lazinsk p, Rosen If, Clark rf, Randall of Danovitch 1b.

Colchester—O'Brien 2b, Shugrue ss, Nelkin 3b, Tynan c, Lazinsk p, Rosen If, Clark rf, Randall cf, Danovitch 1b.

Millington—Kelly cf, Early 1b, Oarcy 2b, Joy p, Gleason rf, Cone ss, Shea If, Snow c, Gorman 3b.

Score by innings:
Colchester 1 2 0 0 3 1 0 0 0—7

Millington 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—2

Strike out, by Joy 12, by Lazinsk 9; two base hits, O'Brien, Nelkin, Darcy, Joy; home run, O'Brien.

This completes the series with Millington. The Colchesters had a game scheduled for this week Saturday with Lebanon, but the latter team had a game that was arranged with Willimantic which they had overlooked. Manager Strong has arrangements made with another strong team in their place.

FUNERAL.

Prof. Charles T. Eaton.

On Sunday afternoon the funeral services of Prof. Charles T. Eaton were held. The body lay in state from 1 to 3 so that the school children who have been under his guidance for the past fourteen years might pay their last tribute to the beloved teacher who had given such faithful and conscientious work to the schools. Hunstreds of children and their teachers marched at 1.30 from the school to the house on Main street. At 2.30 o'clock the service was held. Rev. Dwight C. Stone eulogized Professor Eaton most eloquently as a man whom the world could not afford to lose, whose influence would etill be falt, as he had taught the children how to live as well as how to gain knowledge from books. Beautiful floral pieces showed the love and sympathy of friends. Burial was in Massachusetts on Monday. Prof. Charles T. Eaton.
